

How the North Won: A Military History of the Civil War, 1991, 762 pages, Herman Hattaway, 0252062108, 9780252062100, University of Illinois Press, 1991

'The beginning student of Civil War military history will find the work an unmatched guide to how war was fought in the mid nineteenth century. Anyone already well versed in Civil War history will find immensely stimulating the authors' interpretations of Union and Confederate strategy, interpretations that will have to be grappled with by all subsequent historians of the subject.'
-Russell F. Weigley, Indiana Magazine of History
